

Japanese Language Support

Do you have trouble speaking Japanese or reading Japanese documents issued by the government?

There are over 2 million foreign residents in Japan and many have difficulty communicating in Japanese. Our staff and volunteers can help!

Global Peace Foundation Japan has a program to help foreign residents to learn Japanese. We can assist you with learning Japanese as well as reading complex Japanese documents. We offer Japanese Language Support every Wednesday at our office near Ebisu Station. We have staff and volunteers available to assist you in Japanese, English and Korean.
